sometimes that's the result of it," washington said the intervals are designed to produce between 12 and 20 minutes of training at 84 percent or higher of a member's maximum heart rate.